POSITION TITLE: CONSULAR CASHIER	POSITION GRADE LE- 6 (STARTING SALARY A$53,666, PRO-RATA)
--	---

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Basic Function of the Position

The successful candidate acts as the Consular Section's principal cashier; collecting, accounting and receipting consular fees. The incumbent performs a wide range of non-immigrant visa services including, but not limited to, pre-screening applications, compiling statistics, preparing correspondence and providing visa information as directed by the Chief of the Consular Section, Vice Consul, or LES Supervisor.

Major Duties and Responsibilities

(A) (65%)

The incumbent acts as the Consular Section's principal cashier for approximately four hours per day. Duties include collecting Australian and U.S. currency for American Citizen and Visa fee-based services, issuing receipts via the Automated Consular Register System (ACRS), and returning the correct change.

The Consular Cashier is responsible for maintaining a float and for the safeguarding of collected funds until reconciled and deposited with the Class B Cashier at the end of the work day. They are responsible for printing several reports on a daily basis and maintaining the Consular Section's general receipt file.

(B) (25%)

The incumbent reviews and classifies non-immigrant visa applications received by mail, from travel agents or in person; prepares applications, checks visa classification, and ensures that the application is processed correctly for the Consular Officer's formal decision and approval. The incumbent will also refer more complex cases to the Consular Officer.

This process can include drafting visa clearance requests to the Department or other posts when assigned, providing statistical data to the LES Supervisor for the annual consular package, answering a variety of over-the-counter and telephone inquiries concerning non-immigrant visas and procedures, referring the more complex cases to the Consular Officer. The incumbent will be required to explain refusals to applicants, as well as draft correspondence letters, memoranda and cables.

The incumbent maintains non-immigrant issuance and visa files in accordance with Department guidelines and post policy and handles the disposal of non-immigrant visa records in accordance with the Department's handling policy.

(C) (10%)

The incumbent assists with training new staff to the visa section, assist with the provision of American Citizens Services, and completes other duties as assigned.
